has successfully completed the online, non-credit Specialization

Boost Your Leadership Impact

Effective leaders don't just manage tasks; they shape how their organization operates, guide its culture, and help it grow. In this specialization, you've learned strategies to increase your influence and make smart leadership choices; how to encourage collaboration and empower others to achieve results; and gained the skills to manage people and responsibilities well, address disputes constructively, and communicate effectively. By honing your ability to persuade, support, and inspire others and learning how to nurture productive relationships, you'll take your leadership to the next level.
